the following measure*

Article 1

General provisions

- (1) Purpose: The measure sets out the conditions for drawing on the PdF MU scholarship fund.
- (2) Scope of validity: scholarship programmes of PdF MU.
- (3) Definition of terms and abbreviations: When generic masculine names are used in the text, it is only for the sake of clarity of the regulations; the standards are generally intended to be gender-neutral.
- (4) *Responsibility: the Vice Dean* for Quality and Student and Alumni Affairs.*

Article 2

Specification of scholarship programmes

- (1) In 2023, the Dean of PdF MU announces the following groups of scholarship programmes:
  1. Assistantships and traineeships
  2. Supporting outstanding learners
  3. Support for international mobility of learners
  4. Student Activities - Fulfilling the Social Role of the University
  5. Research activities and presentation of creative activities of students
- (2) This overview summarises the eligibility conditions for each programme and the total amount of the scholarship.
- (3) All clarifying and up-to-date information on scholarship programmes is available on the PdF MU website - Scholarship programmes.

Article 3

Programme 1 - Assistantships and traineeships

(1) Subprogramme 1. A - Assistant professional activities at the faculty's workplaces

- a) The purpose of the programme is to develop students' professional competences, which are part of the theoretical as well as practical focus of the given PdF MU department.
- b) Duration of the scholarship programme: the scholarship programme is announced for an indefinite period starting on 1 September 2023.
- c) Scholarship recipients: full-time or combined Bachelor's, Master's, Continuing Master's or Doctoral students at MU. The scholarship is conditional upon active involvement in professional or scientific research activities at the MU Faculty of Arts.
- d) The source of funding is the Faculty's scholarship fund. The amount of scholarships paid depends on the current amount of the scholarship fund.
- e) The amount of the scholarship is approved by the Vice-Dean* for Quality and Student and Alumni Affairs on the basis of a proposal from the head of a department, institute or non-academic workplace. A scholarship for one student may be awarded up to CZK 5,000 per calendar month, taking into account the nature of the professional or scientific research activity. There is no limit to the number of students who may be awarded a scholarship at a given institute. Each department and institute may disburse a maximum of CZK 15 000 per month from this programme, while non-academic departments may disburse a maximum of CZK 25 000.
- f) The scholarship is non-refundable.
- g) The application with proper justification is submitted electronically in the MU Economic and Administrative Information System (INET) by the head of a department, institute or non-academic workplace.

(2) Subprogramme 1. B - Professional internship at the faculty

- a) The purpose of the programme is the systematic development of students' professional and vocational competences related to the focus of their studies through long-term internships at academic and non-academic workplaces of the MU Faculty of Arts. The activities performed by students during the internship must be of a faculty-wide nature and contribute to the fulfilment of the strategic goals and vision of the Faculty.
- b) The programme cannot finance learners' activities falling under programme 1. A.
- c) The length of the internship at the workplace is determined by a written agreement between the PdF MU workplace and the intern, ranging from 2 to 6 months. The internship can be extended by a maximum of 6 months in justified cases. The internship agreement describes the aim of the internship, the content and scope of professional activities to be performed by the intern, including the mentor responsible for the course and evaluation of the internship.
- d) Duration of the scholarship programme: the scholarship programme is announced for an indefinite period starting on 1 September 2023.
- e) Scholarship recipients: full-time or combined Bachelor's, Master's, Continuing Master's or Doctoral students at MU.

- f) Students are nominated by the head of the relevant department. The proposal for the internship is discussed by the PdF Scholarship Committee and the decision to award support is based on a professional assessment of the internship project and the applicant.
- g) The source of funding is the Faculty's scholarship fund. The amount of scholarships paid depends on the current amount of the scholarship fund.
- h) The amount of the scholarship is approved by the Vice Dean* for Quality and Student and Alumni Affairs. The scholarship may be awarded up to CZK 10,000 per calendar month.
- i) The scholarship is non-refundable.
- j) The application is submitted by the head of the department electronically via the Office in the IS MU no later than 6 weeks before the planned start of the internship.

Article 4

Programme 2 - Support for outstanding learners

- (1) Subprogramme 2.A - Achievement scholarship for outstanding students
  - a) The purpose of the programme is to support and motivate students who have achieved exceptionally good academic results in the previous academic year.
  - b) Duration of the scholarship programme: the scholarship programme is announced for an indefinite period starting on 1 September 2023.
  - c) Scholarship recipients: full-time Bachelor's, Master's and postgraduate students of the Faculty of Arts of MU, including foreign self-pay students in regular study programmes. Students must meet the following criteria:
    - 1. In the previous academic year, they achieved a weighted grade point average of up to 1.20.
    - 2. Have earned a minimum of 60 credits beyond the credits recognized in the previous academic year.
    - 3. They did not exceed the standard study period.
  - d) The source of funding is the Faculty's scholarship fund. The amount of scholarships paid depends on the current amount of the scholarship fund.
  - e) The amount of the scholarship is approved by the PdF MU Scholarship Committee on the proposal of the Vice-Dean for Quality and Student and Alumni Affairs and depending on the number of students and the amount of funds allocated from the PdF MU Scholarship Fund. The amount of CZK 2,000,000 is allocated for one academic year. The amount of scholarships paid depends on the current amount of the scholarship fund.
  - f) The scholarship is a one-time, non-refundable award.
  - g) The learner does not submit an application. Students will be selected on the basis of the criteria entered in the MU Information System.
  - h) Award and payment of the scholarship
    - 1. Scholarships for the previous academic year will be paid in one lump sum in the fall semester of the following academic year.
    - 2. Students in their final year of study may also be paid a merit scholarship for the last academic year (at the end of the 4th, 6th or 10th semester), provided they meet the criteria of the scholarship programme up to and including 30 April of the relevant year. Payment of the scholarship must be made before the end of the final state examination. Final year students who meet the conditions for the award of a merit scholarship after this deadline are not eligible for the scholarship.

(2) Subprogramme 2.B - Support for talented students in doctoral programmes

- a) The purpose of the programme is to support exceptionally talented students of doctoral study programmes at the MU Faculty of Arts and to create financial conditions for their full involvement in excellent research tasks.
- b) Duration of the scholarship programme: this scholarship programme is announced for an indefinite period starting on 1 September 2023.
- c) Scholarship recipients: students studying at the Faculty of Arts MU in a full-time doctoral study programme. Students can apply for the scholarship after successful completion of the first semester of the DSP.
- d) An expert committee appointed by the Dean and composed of experts (Vice-Dean for Research and Academic Affairs, representatives of the relevant disciplinary boards, heads of training departments, representatives of the scholarship committee, etc.) will select those students who are suitable for support on the basis of the submitted research project and expert assessment.
- e) The source of funding is the Faculty's scholarship fund. The amount of scholarships paid depends on the current amount of the scholarship fund.
- f) The amount of the scholarship is decided by the Vice-Dean* for Quality and Student and Alumni Affairs on the proposal of an expert committee. A scholarship for one student may be awarded up to CZK 5,000 per calendar month.
- g) The scholarship is non-refundable.
- h) The scholarship application is submitted electronically by the student via the MU IS Office twice a year, on 1 June and 1 December.
- i) Award of scholarship
  1. The learner submits his/her results, which are evaluated after six months by the aforementioned expert committee. The committee then makes a proposal to award the scholarship for the next six-month period, or to adjust the amount of the scholarship (decrease or increase according to the previous recognizable publication output).
  2. In case of insufficient results, failure to complete tasks, etc., the scholarship may be withdrawn immediately.

Article 5

Programme 3 - Support for international mobility of learners

(1) Subprogramme 3.A - Support for mobility of Erasmus+ students

- a) The purpose of the programme is to support the international mobility of Erasmus+ students. The scholarship is intended to finance living costs and travel expenses associated with a stay abroad in selected European countries. Mobility is defined as a study or work placement abroad of at least 60 days.
- b) Duration of the scholarship programme: the scholarship programme is announced for an indefinite period starting on 1 September 2023.
- c) Scholarship recipients: full-time or combined Bachelor's, Master's, Continuing Master's or Doctoral students at MU.

- d) The source of funding is the Faculty's scholarship fund. The amount of scholarships paid depends on the current amount of the scholarship fund.
- e) The amount of the scholarship is based on the length and location of the stay and the flat monthly instalments set for the country, see Annex 1. The amount of the scholarship is approved by the Vice Dean* of Quality and Student and Alumni Affairs.
- f) The scholarship is non-refundable.
- g) Students apply for the scholarship electronically via the MU IS Office. The application also includes a copy of the mutually confirmed Learning Agreement and the acceptance letter from the receiving institution. At the time of submitting the application, the student must have registered his/her stay abroad in IS MU (registration of the stay in IS MU is the student's obligation).
- h) The application is approved by the Vice Dean* of Quality and Student and Alumni Affairs.
- i) Award and payment of the scholarship
  - 1. The condition for payment of the scholarship is successful completion of the study or work placement, which will be evidenced by the completion of a minimum of 20 ECTS credits. For this purpose, within 30 days of returning from the stay abroad, the student will enter the Transcript of Records and Confirmation of Studies into the IS MU for study stays, and the Traineeship Certificate/Confirmation of the Placement Period for work stays.
  - 2. If the student fails to meet any of the conditions, the scholarship may be withdrawn retroactively in full.
  - 3. The scholarship will be paid during the foreign stay by transfer to the student's bank account entered in the IS MU if the student meets the conditions listed under i).
  - 4. A student may only use this scholarship once in a given academic year.
  - 5. The scholarship cannot be combined with any other scholarship programme funded from the resources of PdF MU.

(2) Sub-programme 3.B - Support for study visits and practical placements outside the Erasmus+ programme

- a) The purpose of the programme is to support the international mobility of students in the form of study stays or practical placements outside the Erasmus+ programme. The aim of the scholarship programme is to motivate students to undertake stays in foreign institutions that are directly related to the subject of study (project, research project, grant, etc.) and thanks to which they will deepen their academic competences or practical experience.
- b) Duration of the scholarship programme: the scholarship programme is announced for an indefinite period starting on 1 September 2023.
- c) Scholarship recipients: full-time or combined Bachelor's, Master's, Continuing Master's or Doctoral students at MU.
- d) The source of funding is the Faculty's scholarship fund. The amount of scholarships paid depends on the current amount of the scholarship fund.
- e) The amount of the scholarship depends on the length and location of the stay and is approved by the scholarship committee. The amount of the scholarship per academic year is set as follows:
  - 1. Stay of up to 30 days: scholarship of up to CZK 10,000.

2. Stay of 31-60 days: scholarship up to 30 000 CZK.
  3. Stay of 61-90 days: scholarship up to 50 000 CZK.
  4. Stay of 91 days or more: scholarship up to CZK 80,000.
- f) The scholarship is non-rewarding and is awarded on the basis of an individual assessment of each application.
- g) Students apply for the scholarship electronically via the MU IS Office at least 6 weeks before their planned departure for study/work placement. The application must be accompanied by an invitation from the relevant department or a personal invitation for a specific person or a confirmed Learning Agreement and a proposed budget for the stay.
- h) The head of the department or institute approves the application. The application is decided by the scholarship committee, which takes into account the previous course of study.
- i) Award and payment of the scholarship
1. The scholarship can cover transport costs (up to 100%), participation fee/tuition (up to 100%) and accommodation costs (up to 100%). The scholarship cannot cover pocket money and meals.
  2. On the basis of an approved application, 80% of the amount is paid to the student by transfer to the account specified in the IS MU before departure for the study/work placement. The remaining 20% is paid after the final report of the study/work placement is uploaded to the application in the MU IS Office. The report is approved by the Vice Dean* of Quality and Student and Alumni Affairs.
  3. If the student fails to meet any of the conditions, the scholarship may be withdrawn retroactively in full.
  4. A student may only use this scholarship once in a given academic year.

(3) Subprogramme 3.C - Support for study stays and practical internships of doctoral students

- a) The purpose of the programme is to support the international mobility of doctoral students in the form of study stays or practical internships in EU countries and beyond and to fulfil the internationalisation obligation of doctoral students.
The Faculty of Education, in accordance with the principles of the HR Award, supports foreign trips of students of doctoral study programmes caring for children up to 15 years of age.
The aim of the scholarship programme is to motivate students to undertake stays in foreign institutions that are directly related to the subject of their doctoral studies and thanks to which they will deepen their academic competences or practical experience.
- b) Duration of the scholarship programme: the duration of the scholarship programme is announced for the academic year 2023/2024 . Unless another duration is announced by the end of this period or the programme is cancelled, the duration of the programme is extended for another academic year.
- c) Scholarship recipients: full-time or combined students in a doctoral programme.
- d) The source of funding is the MU Institutional Plan and the Faculty Scholarship Fund. The amount of scholarships paid depends on the current amount of the scholarship fund.

- e) The amount of the scholarship depends on the length and location of the stay and is approved by the scholarship committee. The amount of the scholarship per academic year is set as follows:
1. Stay of up to 14 days: scholarship of up to CZK 15,000.
  2. Stay of 15-28 days: scholarship up to CZK 30,000, plus a financial allowance for children under 15 of up to CZK 15,000.
  3. Stay of 29-42 days: a scholarship of up to CZK 45,000, plus a financial contribution of up to CZK 22,500 for children under 15.
  4. Stays of 43 days or more: a grant of up to CZK 60,000, plus a financial contribution of up to CZK 30,000 for children under 15.
- f) The scholarship, as well as any financial contribution for children, is non-refundable and is awarded on the basis of an individual assessment of each application.
- g) Students apply for the scholarship electronically via the MU IS Office at least 6 weeks before their planned departure for study/work placement. In exceptional and justified cases, the application may be submitted within a shorter period. The application must be accompanied by an invitation from the relevant department or a personal invitation for a specific person and a proposed budget for the stay, as well as an affidavit in the case of an application for a financial contribution for children under 15.
- h) The application is approved by the supervisor* and the chair or chair of the departmental board. The application is decided by the scholarship committee, which takes into account the previous course of study.
- i) Award and payment of the scholarship
1. The scholarship can cover transport costs (up to 100%), participation fee/tuition (up to 100%) and accommodation costs (up to 100%). The scholarship cannot cover pocket money and meals.
  2. The scholarship may also include a financial contribution towards living expenses and transport for children under 15 living in the same household as the student. However, it does not include health insurance for the children or any other insurance. Children under 15 years of age are only entitled to this allowance if they spend at least 80 % of the duration of their stay abroad with the scholarship recipient, who certifies this in an affidavit. The affidavit must be attached to the scholarship application submitted via the MU IS Office.
  3. On the basis of an approved application, 80% of the amount is paid to students by transfer to the account listed in the IS MU before departure for the study/work placement. The remaining 20% is paid after the final report from the study/work placement is uploaded to the application in the MU IS Office. The report is approved by the Vice Dean* of Quality and Student and Alumni Affairs.
  4. If the student fails to meet any of the conditions, the scholarship may be withdrawn retroactively in full.
  5. A student may only use this scholarship once in a given academic year.

  - f) The scholarship is non-refundable and one-time.
  - g) The application is submitted electronically by the head of the department via the Office in the IS MU twice a year, on 31 January and 30 September. The application contains a plan of activities for which the scholarship fund is to be used in a given semester, including the planned budget and proper justification. The application need not be submitted if the total use of the scholarship at the workplace does not exceed CZK 5 000 per month. The allocation of the scholarship is decided by the Vice Dean* for Quality and Student and Alumni Affairs on the basis of the recommendation of the PdF MU management.
- (2) Subprogramme 4.B - Pedagogical and humanitarian activities
  - a) The purpose of the programme is to support students who, through their (unpaid) activities beyond their study obligations, make a significant contribution to helping children, young people or adults with social disadvantages or long-term adverse health conditions.
  - b) Humanitarian and pedagogical activities must be linked to the development and goals of the faculty or linked to the projects of individual departments or institutes.
  - c) Duration of the scholarship programme: the scholarship programme is announced for an indefinite period starting on 1 September 2023.
  - d) Scholarship recipients: full-time or combined Bachelor's, Master's, Continuing Master's or Doctoral students at MU.
  - e) The source of funding is the Faculty's scholarship fund. The amount of scholarships paid depends on the current amount of the scholarship fund.
  - f) The amount of the scholarship is approved by the Vice Dean* for Quality and Student and Alumni Affairs on the basis of a proposal from the head of the department or institute. The scholarship may be awarded up to CZK 5,000.
  - g) The scholarship is non-refundable and one-time.
  - h) The application with proper justification is submitted by the head of the department or institute in the MU Economic and Administrative Information System (INET).
- (3) Subprogramme 4.C - Support for student activities

- a) The purpose of the programme is to support student societies and activities organised by students that are related to their subject of study or the long-term aim of the Faculty and represent the Faculty in public (e.g. lectures, discussions, educational events for students and the public, exhibitions, theatre performances, etc.).
- b) Duration of the scholarship programme: the scholarship programme is announced for an indefinite period starting on 1 September 2023.
- c) Scholarship recipients: full-time or combined Bachelor's, Master's, Continuing Master's or Doctoral students of the Faculty of Arts of MU.
- d) The source of funding is the Faculty's scholarship fund. The amount of scholarships paid depends on the current amount of the scholarship fund.
- e) The amount of the scholarship is proposed by the PdF MU Student Activities Support Committee after reviewing the application. The amount of the scholarship is approved by the Vice Dean* for Quality and Student and Alumni Affairs. The scholarship may be awarded up to CZK 20,000. The amount of CZK 250 000 is allocated in the sub-programme for one academic year.
- f) The scholarship is a one-time, non-refundable award.
- g) Commission for Support of Student Activities of the Faculty of Arts of MU: The Commission is an advisory and expert body of the Vice-Dean for Quality and Student and Alumni Affairs. The Commission is composed of five members, with a maximum of one member being an employee of the PdF at the time of appointment. The members of the Commission are appointed by the Vice Dean for Quality and Student and Alumni Affairs.
- h) The application for a scholarship with the proposed amount of the scholarship and proof of professional guarantee is submitted electronically (by e-mail) to the chairperson or chairperson of the PdF MU Student Activities Support Committee at stud.aktivita@ped.muni.cz at least 8 weeks before the date of the event. In exceptional and justified cases, the application may be submitted later.
- i) The application for the scholarship is assessed by the Committee for Support of Student Activities of the Faculty of Arts MU.
- j) Evaluation of proposals: the members of the panel will evaluate the proposals according to the criteria below. Each criterion is evaluated separately and the ranking is then based on the arithmetic average of the individual criteria.

Evaluation criteria:

1. Credibility: tradition of the project, experience of applicants, co-financing from private sources.
2. Content: professional benefit for participants, cultural benefit for participants, civic skills development, other skills development.
